

LITHUANIAN CANADIAN FOUNDATION

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

KANADOS LIETUVIŲ FONDAS
LITHUANIAN CANADIAN FOUNDATION

Prize Submission Guidelines

For all submission queries please contact:

Dausa Prize Submissions Coordinator

1. THE PRIZE

- a. The founders of the Dausa Family Lithuanian Literature Prize are the Lithuanian Canadian Foundation and Aldona Dausa-Empakeris. This annual prize was established in honour of her family who emigrated to Canada from Lithuania after World War II.
- b. Three prizes will be awarded annually for original published fiction books of high artistic merit written in the Lithuanian language or translated into Lithuanian.
- c. Dausa Family Lithuanian Literature Prizes will be awarded in 2026 in the following categories:
 - A Prize of 15,000 euros for an original fiction book written and published in Lithuanian.
 - A Prize of 15,000 euros for an original fiction book written in another language, translated into and published in Lithuanian. The Prize will be divided between the author (50%) and the translator (50%).
 - A Prize of 7,000 euros for the first published original book (debut work) written in Lithuanian or translated into Lithuanian by a beginning author and published in Lithuanian. For a translated work, the Prize will be divided between the author (50%) and the translator (50%).
- d. Publishing houses for the Prize winning books will also receive a payment of 1,000 euros, once they have submitted an appropriate distribution/publicity plan for the Dausa Prize and their Prize winning books to the Dausa Prize Submissions Coordinator.

2. EVALUATION COMMITTEE

- a. Each year, an Evaluation Committee for the Dausa Family Lithuanian Literature Prize will be appointed by the Lithuanian Canadian Foundation. The Evaluation Committee will be responsible for reviewing the submitted works and recommending the Dausa Prize recipients, who will be approved by the Lithuanian Canadian Foundation.
- b. The Evaluation Committee may recommend not awarding a Prize in a specific category if it considers that there were no worthy books submissions.

3. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- a. To be eligible, a book must be an original, published first-edition work of fiction written in the Lithuanian language or translated into Lithuanian. In the case of a translation, the author must be of Lithuanian descent. Collections of poetry are not eligible for the prize.
- b. Books must be published in Lithuanian in the prior three calendar years. For the 2026 awards, that is between January 1, 2023, and December 31, 2025.
- c. The Prize is awarded to authors living in Lithuania or abroad.
- d. Posthumous submissions are not accepted.
- e. Applications may be submitted by:
 - publishing houses from any country;
 - the Lithuanian Writers' Union;
 - the Institute of Lithuanian Literature and Folklore; and
 - a Lithuanian organization outside of Lithuania, which is recognized by units or divisions of the World Lithuanian Community.
- f. Publishing houses or organizations may submit no more than one (1) book per category each year.
- g. While authors can only receive a prize in a given category after five (5) calendar years have passed since a prior award in the same category, they are eligible to receive a prize in one of the other two categories during that time, but only for another book.

4. SUBMISSION PROCEDURES AND DEADLINES

- a. Entries must be submitted to the Dausa Prize Submissions Coordinator between September 15th and October 15th, 2026.
- b. Each entry must include the following:
 - Completed Application form;
 - Recommendation for awarding the Prize, which contains a brief evaluation of the candidate's book;
 - Five (5) copies of the submitted book or an electronic version of the book;
 - Author's consent for the use of personal data (completed form); and,
 - A photo of the author (with photo credit) and a image of the book cover provided via e-mail, which can be used freely in print and online (both in jpg format).
- c. No submitted books will be returned to the publishers or organizations.
- d. The individuals / organizations submitting the entries are responsible for the accuracy of the data provided in the application.

5. WINNERS

The winners of the Dausa Family Lithuanian Literature Prize will be announced during the second quarter of 2027.

6. FURTHER INFORMATION

Please direct all enquiries to:

Rasa Bagdonavičienė
Dausa Prize Submissions Coordinator
Lithuanian Writers Union

e-mail: valdyba@rasytojai.lt

tel.: +370 63062549